

Quality Improvement Methodology

VIHA has been using the quality improvement model developed by the Institute of Health Improvement to support quality improvement activities. The rapid action cycle depicted above is a useful method to use with the Expanded Chronic Care Model to measure small changes made at the practice level.