

FIVE DAYS in MAY

May 24, 2017

Sparking Conversations: Turning the Tide on the Opioid Crisis

Hickman Auditorium, University of Victoria | 2:00 – 4:30 pm

2:10-2:25

A Discourse on Our Dependency on Current Opioid Overdose Numbers: Stigma, Statistics and Stasis

Dr. Richard Stanwick, MD, MSc, FRCP(C), FAAP; Chief Medical Health Officer, Public Health

2:25-2:40

From Evidence to Implementation: Responding to BC's Overdose Emergency

Bernie Pauly, RN, PhD; Associate Professor, School of Nursing; Scientist, Centre for Addictions Research of BC; UVIC Provost's Community Engaged Scholar; Island Health Scholar in Residence

2:40-2:55

It's Our Community: Peer Work in an Overdose Crisis

Jack Phillips, Outreach Coordinator; Peer Support Coordinator; Community Advocate; OD Response Worker, SOLID (Society of Living Illicit Drug Users)

BREAK

3:15-3:30

Critical Engagement: Collaborative Research throughout the Overdose Crisis

Bruce Wallace, PhD; Assistant Professor, School of Social Work; Collaborating Scientist, Centre for Addictions Research of BC, University of Victoria

3:30-3:45

Compassion in Action: Practices of Inclusion and Engagement

Stephanie McCune, PhD; Substance Use Knowledge Exchange Manager, Mental Health and Substance Use Services, Island Health

3:45-4:00

Docs Prescribing Heroin... Wow!

Dr. Ramm Hering (MD CCFP MSc Dip PH, Dip ABAM); Addiction Medicine Physician, Pandora Clinic; Island Health Physician Lead, South Island Rapid Access Addiction Clinic and Addiction Medicine Consult Service

Registration: www.viha.ca/rnd/5days educate, inform, inspire, stimulate