

Physiotherapy & Occupational Therapists

Imagine, your life's work in our piece of paradise!
Join us as we continue to develop and expand our therapy services.

We are always looking for enthusiastic, dedicated therapists!

Vancouver Island Health Authority (VIHA) Therapy Services includes physiotherapists, occupational therapists, recreation therapists, and rehabilitation assistants.

- Hospital acute care programs: Medicine, surgery, neurology, emergency, intensive care, cardiac programs, renal services and psychiatry.
- Other programs include services offered at small community hospitals, home and community care, seniors health & residential services, mental health, child and family services, outpatient programs and outreach programs.
- Interdisciplinary stroke care
- Comprehensive programs for arthroplasty patients
- Inpatient rehabilitation services at 3 major sites
- Chronic Disease Management programs
- Cardiac Rehabilitation
- Interdisciplinary pain management programs
- Hand therapy clinics
- Interdisciplinary vocational rehab programs
- Staff wellness programs

BENEFITS & OPPORTUNITIES

- Excellent compensation and benefits package
- Relocation assistance
- Ability to move between clinical settings
- Training and educational opportunities
- Opportunity for flexible work hours
- Our dedicated practice support staff and an innovative practice support tools.

The Best Place on Earth

