This website and all of the information it contains are provided “as is” without warranty of any kind, whether express or implied. All implied warranties, including, without limitation, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement, are hereby expressly disclaimed.

The financial information available on this website meets the minimum information requirements expected from all health authorities. Unless otherwise indicated, the financial information contained in this website is unaudited and may be subject to change. Budgets and projections are not guarantees, and actual results will be different. This website contains forward looking information which deals with other than historical or current facts for the Vancouver Island Health Authority (VIHA). Such statements are subject to risk, uncertainties and assumptions related to factors including, without limitation, operating performance, availability of sufficient funding, and general economic conditions in Canada and the United States. The VIHA disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

For additional information and/or interpretation please contact VIHA Communications at 250-370-8374.

Limitation of Liabilities

Under no circumstances will the VIHA be liable to any person, organization or business entity for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, consequential, or other damages, claims, liabilities, costs or obligations arising from the use or misuse of the material contained in this website or any other website to which this site is linked, including, without limitation, any lost profits, business interruption, or loss of programs or information, even if the VIHA has been specifically advised of the possibility of such damages.
